Godfrey drew attention to the fact that the last of the Greek disembarkation ships arrived in Cyprus today.

Godfrey noted that although the press has attached significance to the appointment of Wen Yu-cheng as a deputy chief of the general staff of the PLA, he is not really the No. 2 man since there are seven deputy chiefs of the general staff.

D/ONE reported that the NIE on Soviet policy in the Middle East will be circulated to USIB members tomorrow, and also that the F-5 paper most likely will not be ready for the Thursday USIB agenda.

D/ONE commented that the discussion with Ambassador Bohlen went quite well.

Bross stimulated a discussion concerning the presentation of the intelligence community's point of view to the State/Defense group reviewing overseas bases.

25X

DD/P drew attention  concerning Viet Cong recruitment of Vietnamese teenagers in Cambodia.

X1

DD/P drew attention to the possible effects on the Italian Coalition Government resulting from the Lo Specchio revelations inspired by General de Lorenzo.
